Each client and every situation is unique. However, our experience has highlighted common challenges. If you recognise the scenarios below, give us a call.

When workload becomes unmanageable

Whether you're planning for seasonal changes, covering the impact of unexpected events, supporting spikes in project workloads, or managing the effects of new business wins, Vario can help.

When a permanent hire just isn't an option

Internal budget constraints, planned business transformation, a freeze on headcount hiring or a lack of suitable applicants. Flexible resources from Vario can ease the pressure until a long-term solution can be found.

When 'ok' is no longer good enough

Sometimes your current arrangements aren't working any more and it's just time for a change. When you're looking for quality, high-calibre, adaptive legal professionals who will fit straight into your organisation, then give us a call!

When the right resource isn't available

Our lawyers can provide specialist skills, round-the-clock support and sector knowledge, complementing and supporting your teams as required.

When life's events mean temporary changes in the office

Vario can provide flexible resources to cover retirements or sabbaticals, sickness or transfers, parental leave or other planned absence, and internal secondments onto other projects.

When the landscape changes

The world is experiencing a once in a generation period of instability. You can support your business with additional resource with the help of Vario. We can provide the know-how and resources to help you through this time.
